MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence ✓
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Deputy Director of Intelligence

FROM:

Chief, Arms Control Intelligence Staff

SUBJECT: Key Arms Control Issues -- Update (C)

1. This "fast track" memorandum is for your information. (U)
2. NST Instructions: The Senior Arms Control Group last Monday reviewed again the instructions for Round II of the Nuclear and Space Arms Talks. They are scheduled to begin in Geneva next week on 29 May. According to the NSC Staff, all our concerns have been apparently taken care of -- e.g., there will be a short paragraph in the basic instruction cable identifying protection of US intelligence sources and methods as a goal for the delegation. (S/NF)
3. Interim Restraint: During the same SACG meeting, Bud McFarlane asked departmental representatives to describe their current thinking about US policy on interim restraint. This review took slightly over an hour. These positions were reasonably predictable; there were no surprises. The topic will be discussed again on Friday when a major revision will have been accomplished in the policy paper on this issue. (S/NF)
4. A NSC meeting on interim restraint will occur on 31 May, according to Mr. McFarlane. The plan at the moment is to give you, this Saturday morning, a book of materials to read this weekend. ACIS, NIO/SP and NIO/USSR are working together to create this book. Delivery to you Saturday morning is preferred because there is another meeting of the SACG Friday afternoon at 1700. (S/NF)
5. If there is more we can do to assist you here, please call. (U)
